

Thinner Text after export to PDF

This is just a test document to illustrate the problem of text appearing thinner after export to PDF. It looks fine in Xara, while writing and viewing it. But definitely looks thinner in the PDF, easily seen if one zooms in on the text in the PDF.

I've exported the very same text from another DTP and the PDF looks thicker.